

Active Essex Sports Awards 2012 are announced

8 Nov 2012

7 November 2012 BBC Essex announced live on BBC Essex Radio 103.5 & 95.3 FM the winners of this year's Active Essex Sport Awards. Winners will go through to the judging panel for the BBC East Sports Awards on 4th December 2012. The prestigious annual ceremony, which was held at the Weston Homes Community Stadium, in Colchester, saw residents of Essex recognised for their sporting talent with awards in the following categories:

Coach of the Year

Winner

Neil Masters from Colchester (Tendring Volleyball Club)

Runners up

Phil Sergeant from (Chelmsford Athletics club)

Scott Hann from Basildon (Coach at South Essex Gymnastics Club)

Young Sports Personality of the Year

Winner

James Hollis from Epping Forest (Disability Swimming)

Runners up

Brinn Bevan from Castle Point (South Essex Gymnastics Club, Basildon)

Joshua Bain from Colchester (Chelmsford Sports & Athletics Centre)

Disabled Sports Personality of the Year

Winner

Emma Hollis from Epping Forest (Swimming)

Runners up

Crystal Lane from Chelmsford (cycling)

Joshua Bain from Colchester (Athletics: Chelmsford Sport & Athletics Centre)