

The Active Chelmsford Sports Awards sponsored by M & G Investments and ARU

The Active Chelmsford Sports Awards Ceremony 2012

The Active Chelmsford Sports Awards were held on Monday 8 October 2012 and were hosted at Anglia Ruskin University. Generous sponsorship and support was received from Chelmsford City Council, M & G Investments and Anglia Ruskin University to enable the awards to take place.

Sports Coach of the Year

A coach who holds a current recognised coaching qualification and is committed to providing the highest standard of coaching to their athletes in either team or individual sports. This person could also be someone who helps other coaches to develop.

- Winner – Phil Sergeant Athletics

- Highly Commended – Kevin Mason Karate

Unsung Hero

A volunteer who has made an outstanding contribution to local sport. This could be a coach, official, committee member or anyone else who it's felt deserves recognition for their dedication to their sport.

- Winner – Sylvia Sergeant Athletics

- Highly Commended – Paul Bohannon Volleyball

Junior Sports personality

A performer under the age of 18 on 1st September (of the awards year) who has made a significant impact during the year at county level or above either individually or as part of a team.

- Winner – Poppy Lake Athletics

- Highly Commended – Kiera Tippet Triathlon

The 2012 awards ceremony will form part of the recognition pathway through to the Essex Sports Awards and up to Regional and National BBC Sports Personality of the Year Awards.